HOW WE RECORD

We record the episode both as a video version for YouTube and as an audio version for several different podcast platforms. I'll share all the important technical details a little close to our scheduled show date.

A LITTLE ABOUT ME

I am a lawyer, a mom, a wife, and a business owner in Houston, Texas. My law practice specifically focuses on helping small businesses, online or brick and mortar, build their business' legal fundamentals, so they can move forward confidently as CEO's. I create an environment for my clients that is not overwhelming and one where business legal items are easy to embrace, understand, and implement.

WHAT GUESTS ARE SAYING

“ It was an absolute pleasure to be a guest on the Law Chat with Girija podcast. Unlike many other podcasts, Girija prepares you ahead of time -- she sends a list of suggested topics, interview tips, and background information. I felt a lot more prepared than on many other podcasts, and that allowed us to have a more authentic conversation and connection. Plus, Girija is a total delight!!
